Guided tours, lectures and workshops on bicycle planning and bicycle infrastructure in Amsterdam

Projektburo Fiets Amsterdam organizes tours, lectures and workshops about Bike City Amsterdam. About cycling-inclusive planning and policy and how cycling can contribute to create smart, healthy, inclusive and sustainable cities, towns and regions.

We do this in close cooperation with Fietsersbond Amsterdam (Cyclists' Union Amsterdam), the experts on bicycle planning and policy in Amsterdam.

The programs are directed by professionals who are well informed on bicycle inclusive facilities and policy in Amsterdam and the Netherlands.

About Fietsersbond

Fietsersbond is the national bicycle advocacy league in the Netherlands.

In Amsterdam Fietsersbond has many years of experience in cooperating, co-creating and action for safe and pleasant cycling.

Fietsersbond has played a significant role in building Amsterdam Bike City.

And it still does: tackling difficult bottlenecks for cyclists, preserving the good facilities and raising awareness for new challenges.

About Projektburo Fiets Amsterdam

The programs are staged by Projektburo Fiets Amsterdam. This non-profit organisation realizes projects for cyclists that are outside the scope of the regular work of Fietsersbond Amsterdam.

Examples are signposting for cyclists, the famous bicycle maps of Amsterdam and the Amsterdam region and tours and lectures about bicycle policy.
